

TFG Wealth Management of Newtown PA recently hosted District Attorney Lynne Abraham at Deer Meadows Retirement Community in Philadelphia. Ms. Abraham spoke about different types of financial fraud and scams targeted at seniors and how they can protect themselves. She also announced that she has thrown her hat in the ring for the U.S. Attorney position here in Philadelphia.

The talk given by DA Abraham was one in an educational series of 8 talks sponsored by TFG Wealth Management to educate senior citizens on important issues. The next lecture is scheduled for August 5th at 2 PM in the Deer Meadows Facility located at 8301 Roosevelt Blvd in Northeast Philadelphia. It is open to the public and refreshments will be served. The topic for August is tax and estate planning and how to avoid problems with probate and estate taxes. For more information, call TFG Wealth Management at 866-296-8156 and ask for Mark or Nancy.

TFG Wealth Management helps seniors and retirees with financial and personal issues including income planning, paying for assisted living services, savings programs, saving money on taxes and making their money last longer.
